4. JUDGING

Judging shall be based on the following criteria:

- a. 70 points for the correct handling, exhibition and presentation of the dog.
- b. 15 points for the handlers' attire, having regard to its suitability to the occasion and its harmony with the exhibit.
- c. 15 points for the preparation, grooming and presentation of the dog.
- d. The judges and stewards shall require the dog to be paraded around the ring in the same manner or pattern as that required in ordinary conformation shows.
- e. Fancy dress or other attire that is unsuited to the efficient exhibition of the dogs will be penalised.

In coming to a decision, the judges will keep the foregoing five rules firmly in mind and select the handler who is best equipped to handle a dog in open competition.

a. Entry form to be submitted with a copy of handler's Birth Certificate or Identity Card.

The handlers will have to arrange for their own dogs to participate.

Judge's decision is final and the score sheets are strictly meant for the MKA only and not to be distributed to anyone else.

For the safety of the other handlers and dogs, Judges/Steward reserve the right to ask handlers who are not able to manage their dogs to leave the ring.
